

No Blues!-shoes

Take, take a walk on the inside

Hear, listen to the easterly wind and tell me its secrets

See, sunset colors in my window side

Feels like "show me your shoes to tell you who you are".

Hey-you! Es, you, i#m talking to you, and you too!

Sail away!-Sellasieye way and little Shiva is inviting me to dance again.

What they say, I hear but I cannot stay, I'll make my day in my own way.

And when they ask me what the hell I gotta say, I say HEY tararararey

Ref: Can't you see I've got the blues? The Blues with no shoes, with no shoes.

In the playground,

An answer I found.

In the playground

My world turned to sound.

In the playground,

My heart start beating like a drum.

In the playground,

My head hit the ground.

In the playground, round round round round ground ground!

Turn around, turn inside out flip around flip upside down.....
